Gale Stops the Races

Highlands of Navesink, N. J., June 22.—There is a howling northeast storm today and a 20-mile wind. Lipton and the American yachtmen are disappointed, as today was to be the Shamrock try-out over a measured course.

Castellane a Deputy Jury has Been Secured

Paris, June 22.—The chamber of deputies has made valid today the re-election of Boni Castellane, by an almost unanimous vote.

Sale May Fail Through.

Salt Lake, June 22.—Owing to a hitch in the negotiations between W. A. Clark and a Harriman representative in New York, the transfer of the Oregon Short Line of the Salt Lake and Los Angeles route, July 1st, may be delayed. No money has yet been paid over. The difficulty arises from the transfer of the rolling stock accompanying the deal.

To Stop at Chemawa.

The overland train will stop at Chemawa tomorrow for the convenience of those who wish to attend the commencement exercises at the Indian school. Superintendent Potter extends a cordial invitation to all to attend.

D. S. Livesay, the Woodburn sawmill man, was in the city today on business.

Consular Appointments

Washington, June 22.—Among the consular appointments announced today is that of Albion Tourgee, of New York, author and novelist, to be consul general at Halifax. Louis Ames, now consul at Goudaloupe, to be consul at Para, Brazil. He gained fame by his tireless and intelligent work at the Martinique disaster.

Electric Cars Get Smashed

Cleveland, June 22.—In a heavy fog the electric cars on Wilson and Bowen streets collided this morning. William Fuller, who was standing on the platform, was fatally crushed, and Thos. Rodrick and August Clements seriously injured. The cars were crowded, and a dozen were cut by flying glass and bruised.

Salt Did Not Cure Him

Los Angeles, June 22.—Walter McCurdy, the young American attorney, whom powerful influence from the United States, saved from penal servitude in the Mexican salt mines, is again in jail in Hermosillo. Saturday he got on a big drunk, and began shooting up the town. He was previously in jail for forgery.

To Honor a Filipino

Washington, June 22.—The war department advises from Manila say a movement is on foot among the Filipinos to perpetuate the memory of the late Mabini with a public library, and a fine mausoleum and statue.

A Most Wise Judge.

Judge Furlong, of Brooklyn, on Friday rendered a most remarkable decision when he said: "When one woman says another is an old maid, and is looking for a man, she is guilty of disorderly conduct." The decision was rendered against Mrs. Elizabeth Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, who was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Loretta Storey. He held Mrs. Fitzgerald for trial. It is very annoying for a woman not yet 30 to be called an old maid, said the magistrate. Mrs. Fitzgerald's counsel pleaded that she was only telling the truth, and begged the magistrate to reconsider. "That can not be helped," said the magistrate, "the truth should not always be spoken."

Latest News From Nome

Seattle, June 22.—The steamer Senator arrived from Nome today with $100,000 in gold. She brings news of the burning of the Lawrence hotel on June 18th, with a loss of $30,000.

Fort Boise West, executor of the estate of William Fowler West, by his attorneys, W. T. Slater and W. M. Kaiser, today filed objections and exceptions to the findings of the court in removing him as executor.

The Kaiser up Early

Kiel, Germany, June 22.—At 6 o'clock this morning the Kaiser, in his steam launch, experimented with the mines in the bay, and afterwards witnessed several torpedo experiments, and visited the shipyards.

The race between the warship's pinnaces was won by the American cruiser Chicago's boat, amid great enthusiasm. The pinnaces of all the American ships, and all the German vessels participated.

They All Like Beer.

The Kaiser took charge of the Hohenzollern's boat in the race for ships' boats, and handled it in the same skillful manner which marked his sailing on the Meteor. Tonight the Kaiser, Cotton, Tower and others will attend a beer evening on the yacht club grounds.

Politics Before Fair Measures.

Rome, June 22.—Owing to the ministerial crisis, it has been impossible for the chamber to discuss before its adjournment tonight the appropriation for Italy's participation in the St. Louis fair. The necessary funds will be transferred from other sources, and action for preliminary approval will be presented at the fall meeting of the chamber.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The supreme court handed down two decisions today, both opinions being by Justice Brandeis, one affirmed and one reversed.

State of Oregon, respondent, Manoy Howard, jointly informed against with Alexander Meldrum, appellant; from Baker county; Robert Eakin, judge. Opinion by Justice Brandeis; affirmed.

This is the second appeal in this case. Defendant Howard and one Meldrum were jointly charged by an information filed by district attorney, with the crime of larceny by stealing an animal belonging to R. R. Palmer and H. E. Denham. Howard was tried first and convicted, but, upon appeal, judgment was rendered, and a new trial ordered. Meldrum was hereafter tried, convicted and the judgment affirmed. Howard was re-tried, convicted and again appeals. The questions arising on the instructions and relating to the sufficiency of the evidence to justify a conviction, were practically the same as in the Meldrum case, and after re-examining them the court could find no reason to change the conclusions therein reached.

Newton Hoover, appellant, vs. W. J. King, Alice L. Bartlett and George W. Bartlett, respondents; appeal from Harney county; Hon. M. D. Clifford, judge. Opinion by Justice Brandeis; reversed.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Cox, of Portland, are visiting at the home of county Judge Scott.

Mrs. J. C. Wason left today for visiting in the country for her health.
